CRIME OF THE WEEK OCTOBER 5 TO OCTOBER 12, 2001

WANTED:

ARMED ROBBERY

On September 25, 2001 at 6:35 pm, two armed suspects entered the Rowlands Nursery and demanded money from the employees. One of the suspects stayed at the front door of the business, while the other followed one of the employees to the cash register and safe. The employees complied with the demands of the armed suspects. The money was placed into a green duffle bag and the suspects ordered the employees to lie on the floor. The suspects fled in a westerly direction. Police subsequently found a black sweatshirt at Jefferson and McLeod, which is believed to belong to one of the suspects.

The suspects are described as Asian males in there 20's. One of the males had a mole on his left cheek.

Anyone with information on this theft is asked to call Crime Stoppers at 843-STOP.

Information leading to an arrest can earn you up to a $1,000 cash reward and you remain completely anonymous.
